GOV. HOFFMAN AND THE RIOT.

Gen. McQuade, of Gov. Hoffman's staff, writes a letter to the Utica Observer rela-tive to the charge made by the New York Tribune. He says unqualifiedly that Gov. Hoffman did not learn through him on Monday, July 10th, that Mayor Hall intended to suppress the Orange procession. "The only grain of truth," says the General, "in the mass of falsehoods is the fact that General was the Monday and the fact that Cont. Hoffman was in Now York or the Cont. that Gov. Hoffman was in New York on Monday for a short time. I accompanied Nonany for a stort time. I accompanied the Governor from Newport, and reached New York by steamer. On Monday morning, the 10th inst., the Governor had an engagement in Albany which he wished to fulfill, and to this end was dewished of taking the S. A. M. train on the Hudison Railroad. It did to take the fast train a contract the coachman to the coachman to return at 10 o'clock to the not see the Governor again until after his return from Albany on the next evening. While conversing on our way to Clarenden, the proposed Orange procession was discussed. Whatever people may say now, after the affair is over, I believe there were few who anticipated any serious riot on the 12th, until Monday morning, when the people learned that Archbishop Dey had found sufficient cause for alarm to warn his flock not to molest the Orange procession. Even then the public supposed that his admonition and those of his priests would prove ef-tectual in restraining violence, the people forgetting that rioters and ruffians are not habitual church-goers. I say this, be cause I did not myself apprehend danger. I told the Governor that I did not believe a few families would have influence enough with their countrymen to induce them to molest the procession; that I was confident there would be no serious dis-turbance. The Governor requested me to learn what I could about the matter to learn what I could about the matter and telegraph him at Albany. The same evening, about eleven o'clock, I went to the office of Superintendent Kelso. He was closeted with the Commissioners and I waited for him some time. He saw that a serious riot was threatened from a collision of the Orange recovery. serious riot was threatened from a collis-ion of the Orange procession and so-called target companies on the other side, who were drilling to parade on the same day with the Oragemen. first read Kelso's order. He thought the ffect of that order would be to throw us elements into New Jersey, and he ediately commenced writing his pronation, which was finished by 1 P. M. He further stated that as fast as one sheet of the proclamation was written it was copied by my assistant secretary, so that when I had finished two copies were within a few moments of simultaneous completion, and I sent the secretary with one when I had finished two copies were within a few moments of simultaneous completion, and I sent the secretary with one copy to the Western Union Telegraph Otfice to transmit the proclamation to the papers in Newark and Jersey City, and I took my own copy to the Atlantic Telegraph Office to send it to the New York papers, my copy being written in an abstray and the secretary could read it handily, so I had to dictate it to the telegraph operator. There was a storm on Tuesday which delayed the sending of the proclamation over the wires until half-past two o'clock, and took constructive possession of both offices in Trenton, and claimed that no message should be transmitted until the proclamation had been sent, and the operators good-naturedly yielded to my wishes. The proclamation got over the wires at flye minutee past three o'clock, and moments. The proclamation got over the wires at five minutes past three o'clock, and immedately afterward the military orders were sent to Gen. Runyan, to the Quarter master General, to the Adjutant General and to the staff officers, so that by half set is to be state of the coessary military orders had been given. Upon reaching Jersey City on Wednesday morning I was a transport of Neil, who, though an Irishman and a Catholic, promptly secorded my action."
